

Population Statistics: Data Definitions

1. Date- Day that the information pertains to.
2. Gender- Male, Female, Transgender.
3. Facility- Physical location of youth.
4. Case Pending Disposition- Individuals currently in a juvenile hall pending a court date which will decide whether they go into a long-term detention or are released from juvenile hall.
5. Secure Youth Treatment Facility- New- Individuals currently in a juvenile hall that have been dispositioned to a Secure Track Youth Treatment Facility and are pending an initial move to a Secure Youth Treatment Facility.
6. Suitable Placement: New- Individuals currently in a juvenile hall after being dispositioned to Suitable Placement and are pending an initial move to a suitable placement. Suitable Placement is a type of dispositional order used when other restrictive sanctions have not yet resolved identified issues, and/or when family and/or emotional issues factor into the youth's behavior. Youth are placed in varied environments, which may include and smaller group home environment, a larger foster home facility, or a small family home.
7. Suitable Placement: Detained Pending Replacement- Individuals who were previously dispositioned and placed at a Suitable Placement but have returned to juvenile hall pending assignment to a new Suitable Placement without new charges.
8. Suitable Placement: Detained Pending Court- Individuals who were previously dispositioned and placed at a Suitable Placement but have returned to juvenile hall pending a court date with or without new charges.
9. DKC Placement: New- Individuals currently detained in a juvenile hall who were previously dispositioned to the Dorothy Kirby Center (DKC) and are pending an initial move to DKC. DKC is a locked facility that provides Intensive Day Treatment program (DTI) for those with significant mental health needs that would otherwise go unmet at a camp. Not to be confused with a placement.
10. DKC Case Return: Court- Individuals currently detained in a juvenile hall who were previously dispositioned and placed at DKC but have returned to juvenile hall pending a court date.
11. DKC Court Return: Medical- Individuals who were previously dispositioned and placed at DKC but have returned to juvenile hall pending a medical appointment at an off-site facility.
12. Camp Placement: New- Individuals currently in a juvenile hall after being dispositioned to Camp Placement and are pending an initial move to Camp.
13. Camp Case Return: Court- Individuals who were previously dispositioned and placed at a Camp but have returned to juvenile hall pending a court date.

14. Camp Case Return: Medical- Individuals who were previously dispositioned and placed at Camp but have returned to juvenile hall pending a medical appointment at an off-site facility.
15. Camp Case Return: Other- Individuals who were previously dispositioned and placed at Camp but have returned to juvenile hall pending a non-medical or court related appointment.
16. 777 WIC Violation- Individuals currently in juvenile hall pending disposition to a violation of a previous order which removed the youth from the custody of a parent, guardian, and directed placement in a foster home.
17. DCFS- Individuals currently in juvenile hall with dual DCFS/Probation supervision that are waiting to be released to DCFS.
18. Government Hold- a broad categorization used when an individual is detained in a juvenile hall while technically under Federal or out-of-county jurisdiction that is not currently able to house the youth while transfer is pending.
19. Out-of-State Transfer- Individuals currently in a juvenile hall pending transfer to another state's jurisdiction.
20. Community Detention Program- Individuals currently in a juvenile hall that were participating in a Community Detention Program immediately prior.
21. Pending Transfer to DJJ- Individuals currently in a juvenile hall pending transfer to the Department of Juvenile Justice. This category will eventually cease to exist.
22. Pending Transfer to County Jail- Individuals currently in a juvenile hall pending transfer to Los Angeles County Jail.